275 AT FIRE DEPT. DINNER ON THURSDAY

Two hundred seventy-five members of the Gettysburg Fire Department, their wives, members of the Auxiliary and guests were present Thursday evening for the annual Ladies Night dinner of the fire department at the Moose home, York St.

The banquet was interrupted by a fire call, with a crew from the department selected in advance answering the alarm while the remainder of the firemen awaited further call, if needed.

It was the first time an alarm has interupted a Firemen's Ladies night and the program of designating certain members to respond to the alarm worked well, but there was considerable tension until the call came that the fire was quickly extinguished. The blaze was in the emergency brakes of a truck in the 500 block of Steinwehr Ave.

Landed By Judge

Judge W. C. Sheely was the principal speaker at the event and praised the firemen for their contributions to the community. "We are fortunate in our community. Over the years, I have been in a position to know of and observe many of the wonderful things that have been done by many people. Sometimes I have wished that I might write a book of the many activities in the county, but some of the greatest examples of public service could not be told, for if they were it would ruin the purpose for which they were done."

Fire Department President Harold Culp thanked the firemen for their support and expressed the appreciation of the firemen to the Moose lodge, its officers and the staff preparing and serving the meal for "making this available for us."

Glenn Weishaar, chairman of the Battle Anniversary program last year and again this year, reported the fire department made a profit of $9,242.26 from last year's event. "This was possible only because of the cooperation of everyone, the firemen the auxiliary, and the general public. This year we have more work ahead of us than in the past for we are setting up an entirely new site for the carnival at Recreation Field."

FARMERS WILL MEET MONDAY

The Adams County Farmers Association has called an open meeting for Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Adams Electric Cooperative building, rear of N. Stratton St., to provide the county's farmers with full information on the corn acreage reserve program of the government's "Soil Bank."

Farmers have until next Friday, March 8, to enter land into the corn reserve of the Soil Bank. Up to Thursday 239 farmers in the county had placed 2,573.8 acres of corn land into the reserve and for that, if all requirements are complied with, will receive approximately $120,000.

George W. Stock, president of the county farmers association said Richard A. Pannay, farmer field man for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, and J. Glenn Miller, office manager for the county ASC committee, will present details of the regulations and requirements for placing corn acreage in the Soil Bank reserve. Richard Long of the Soil Conservation Service will outline the services available to the farmers of the county through the staff in his office.

Stock said the session was being held to acquaint the farmers with details of the program in time for them to "choose wisely what they wish to do before the deadline had passed." He added that "for some farmers it will be an advantage to enter corn land in the Soil Bank, for others it will not be, but every farmer should know the full story if he wants to do an intelligent job of choosing."

BUSY SCHEDULE IS MAPPED BY LOCAL JAYCEES

Plans for a number of activities were outlined Thursday evening at a meeting of the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce at the engine house, E. Middle St.

Fred H. Attinger reported the Senior Class at Gettysburg High School Thursday voted to hold a graduation party with the Jaycees again as sponsors. The Junior Chamber voted again to ask the Moose lodge for use of its facilities for the night and will meet with representatives of the Senior Class to help the class set up the student committees that will carry out much of the work for the proposed graduation party.

The group voted to conduct another "Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up" campaign in connection with the annual cleanup week locally this spring. Floyd Currens was named by President Harold Ecker as general chairman for the "Clean Up" campaign with other members of the committee including Jack H. Bartlet, Harry Redding and William D. Hendley.

Plan "Car Wash"

A "car wash project" in April was selected as a means of raising funds for Jaycee activities. Virgil Hartman was selected as chairman of the committee which also includes Kenneth Sterner, Fred Newman and Walter Fohl.

Named as a membership committee for March were Paul Reaver, William Lentz, Ross Crouse and James Spicer.

Further plans were made for the Bosses Night dinner to be heeld by the Jaycees this evening at 6:30 o'clock at the VFW home, E. Middle St., with Ralph E. Peters, Camp Hill, national Jaycee vice president, as the speaker.

ASKS GENEROUS RESPONSES TO R. C. CAMPAIGN

Calling attention to the local and national services carried on throughout the year by the Red Cross, Campaign Chairman Crosby N. Hartzell appealed today to Adams Countians for a generous response to the drive for $17,000 which opened today. Bad weather kept most solicitors from starting their rounds today.

"When you give to the Red Cross," Mr. Hartzell said, "You are feeding, sheltering, clothing and rebuilding homes for disaster sufferers. You are saving lives, too, through the Red Cross water safety first aid and home nursing programs.

"You are serving the men and women in our armed forces in the United States and overseas and you are remembering our disabled and hospitalized veterans. The Red Cross provides them entertainment and instruction, comfort, supplies and helps maintain contact with their families.

Extra For Disasters

"You are helping children to become better citizens by serving others through Junior Red Cross at home and abroad and you are making possible the vast amount of service rendered by an army of millions of volunteer Red Cross workers.

"We have had an extra $906 added to our county quota this year for disaster relief. Experience shows disaster will strike six times a week this year — and the Red Cross will be there. Will you stand with us by helping meet our county goal?" the chairman asked.

Chairman Hartzell acknowledged help given by members of the Phi Mu sorority at Gettysburg College who have helped prepare solicitors' materials and assisted with campaign letters mailed in the last week and with the preparation of campaign posters. The group included Diane Sheffer, Barbara Borke, Rosanna Hallman, Sandy Wolff and Carol Reed.

The Red Cross drive continues through March as approximately 400 volunteers in 39 districts in the county go after the largest peacetime quota the county chapter ever was asked to raise.

Arrested After Hit-Run Accident

Herbert Cameron Reed, 36, Fawn Grove, was arrested Tuesday night on a hit and run driving charge brough before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder.

After remaining in jail overnight in default of bail, he appeared for a hearing before the justice this morning and was then retuned to jail in default of $500 bail after being held for court. He expected to raise the bail later today.

Reed was accused by state police of having struck the car of Samuel B. Betz, 54, Baltimore, four miles west of here on the Fairfield Rd. Both Betz and Reed were headed east, according to police when Reed allegedly attempted to pass the Beltz sedan, and skidded on the icy road, striking the other car. Reed is alleged to have continued on after the impact, without stopping. Beth's car had $20 worth of damage.

Thirty-six marriage licenses have been issued by the clerk of courts so far this year, the same number as was granted in the first two months of 1956.

In February 25 permits to wed were issued, and 11 in Jannary. In 1956 there were 16 in January and 20 in February.

This morning the clerk started March by issuing a license to Eugene Edward Shaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Edward Shaffer, Biglerville R. 1, and Darby Joan Chronister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Harper Chronister, Biglerville.

12-Year-Old Is Killed In 9-Car Crash Near Allentown

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A 12-year-old boy was killed and three people hospitalized in a nine car automobile accident on the Lehigh Valley Throughway (U.S. 22) near here early today.

State police said it was one of the worst tieups they have ever seen on the throughway. It took them an hour to get the road open again. The accident occurred near the Nazareth Interchange.

Michael Haney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Haney, of Fountain Hill, Pa. was killed. Mrs. Mary Sterlein also of Fountain Hill is in serious condition with multiple injuries at St. Luke's Hospital in Bethlehem. Edwin Dotter of Easton, Pa., was also listed in serious condition with a broken left leg and other injuries. Richard McGee of Georgetown, Del., was hospitalized with head injuries but his condition was not considered serious.

McGee was a passenger in a car being driven by Jerry Gonser, assistant basketball coach at the University of Delaware. They were returning from the Lafayette-Delaware basketball game in Easton.

Police said the pileup started after Mrs. Sterlein lost control of her car on the icy highway. She and the Haney boy were hurled across the road when her car climbed a concrete abuttment and spun around.

Ayre Urges Town To Attract More Visitors Annually And Strive To Extend Their Stay

"Gettysburg must make itself a travel objective worthy of a visit of one, two or three days instead of one, two or three hours," said William S. Ayre, proprietor of the Criterion Motel, Carlisle St., in endorsing the Gettysburg Travel Council's campaign to raise more than $22,000 to attract more visitors to this historic shrine.

Enlargement or expansion of Gettysburg's "cash crop" can be done in two ways, Ayre said "by attracting more visitors and by extending their stay."

Continuing he said: "Gettysburg's ability to survive changing conditions rests solely on its ability to maintain itself as a travel objective.

Make Town An Objective

"Any unfavorable changes could be offset, and undoubedly more than offset, by establishing Gettysburg in the minds of travelers as an objective worthy of a stay of one, two or three days.

"The statistics of the Travel Council's accommodations group emphasizes this possibility and also the extent to which opportunities are afforded in this direction right now . . . opportunities that can be cashed in on if adequate funds are intelligently applied.

$2,000,000 Accommodations

"The accommodations available for transient travel in Gettysburg and immediate vicinity aggregate approximately 600 rooms costing at least $2,000,000 with a replacement value of probably $4,000,000 at today's costs.

"With the existing facilities the yearly income from accommodations alone could be more than a million dollars. And that total, of course, would be tripled when expenditures for meals, entertainment and retail purchases were added.

"The National Park census indicates 800,000 visitors annually. People in the accommodations field estimate that 180,000 of those 800,000 people stay here overnight. If only 180,000 overnight accommodations are provided that means that less than 25 per cent remain an appreciable length of time and that more than 75 per cent of the visitors

Money For Building Here Still In Bill

Congressman S. Walter Stauffer, of the Adams-York-Cumberland district, informed The Gettysburg Times today that the $528,000 item in the appropriation bill for the National Park Service for the next fiscal year beginning July 1, providing for a Visitor's Center Building on the Battlefield, was not stricken when the House slashed the bill by $60,000,000.

The amount provides for the construction of a new building, near the Meade statue on the Battlevield, to house the $50,000 painting of Pickett's Charge and facilities for the Park Service staff and visitors to the field.

The bill now is in the Senate for final passage.

483 STUDENTS IN EAST BERLIN GIVEN VACCINE

A total of 483 students at East Berlin received Salk polio vaccine shots Thursday in the program designed to give every child in school an opportunity to receive the three-inoculation program to prevent the danger of paralysis from infantile paralysis.

First, second and third shots were given at East Berlin by Dr. Leon Roos, with the children receiving which ever shots they needed. 351 received first shots, Mrs. Louise Morelock, the school nurse in charge, said.

The number brought to 4,881 the number of inoculations given to children in the county during February. Since February 1, 1956, a total of 13,913 inoculations have been given in the schools and Warner Hospital clinic programs carried out under the supervision of Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County medical director, the state nurses and school officials, with various physicians in the county taking part in the program.

With the program moving to the schools the largest number of shots was given in February. In January, 1,402 inoculations were given. During that month 881 received first shots, 163 second, and 358 third.

The record from February 1, 1956, to December 31, 1956, shows 3,378 received first shots, 3,352 second shots, and 900 third shots under the state program. The records also show six parents refused to allow their children to receive the vaccine so far in the program.

Most of the support for the polio shot program has come through the state and federal funds, providing the shots and some of the syringes. The Adams County unit of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has provided many of the syringes used in administering the polio vaccine locally. In addition the first "outside" donation was noted today, with the state nurses reporting a gift of $100 from the Littlestown VFW toward purchase of supplies that might be needed in the inoculation program.

Directors To Visit New Steel School

The Gettysburg Joint School District's school directors will go to Emmitsburg on Sunday afternoon to inspect the new prefabricated school building placed in use there last fall.

The directors will meet at the high school at 2:30 p.m. to pool their transportation.

With need for several additional classrooms by next fall and with the prospect of erecting a new grade school building as soon as possible on the land soon to be acquired from the county along the Harrisburg Rd., north of E. Broadway, the local directors have building problems ahead of them.

PTA PROGRAM SATURDAY AT HS AUDITORIUM

Friends and relatives of a local citizen are being brought from various sections of the country to honor a "distinguished Gettysburg resident" at the "This Is Your Life" program to be presented by the Gettysburg Parent-Teachers Association Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock at the local high school.

Tickets for the program are on sale in the schools and will be available at the door of the school auditorium for the program at which some person, as yet undesignated, will be picked from the audience, and whose life will be dramatized on the stage in the same manner as nationally known celebrities are honored on the "This Is Your Life" TV program.

Party To Follow

The recipient of the honor will not be named until the show begins but officials of the PTA said the person to be selected is one who "has given much to our community, churches and schools." It was added that "the program in a sense is a tribute to all who have led equally important lives for our community."

John C. "Buck" Stahle will be the master of ceremonies for the show.

Following the program there will be a party held in the home economics department of the high school for the honored guest and the persons brought here to depict his or her life.

The program will also include a half hour con ert by the Gettysburg High School choir under the direction of Paul Grove and songs by Mrs. Paul Reaser. After the program punch and cookies will be served the choir members in the choir room.

He has served as president of the South Penn Baseball League and for several years managed the Hunterstown Baseball League.

MILD FEBRUARY SKIDS OUT ON SLEET, GLAZE

March may go out like a lamb but it arrived in a storm of sleet and freezing rain that made some of the worst driving conditions of the winter. Highways glazed Thursday afternoon and freezing rain and sleet during the night brought little improvement although state Highway Deparment cinder crews were called into action.

The month that ended Thursday was the warmest February here since 1954, with the average temperature for each day 5.76 degrees above normal. The last two days of the month—before the sleet arrived—were the warmest with highs of 59 degrees. The cold reading for Fbruary was 17 degrees and came on February 12.

The average daily high reading here last month was 44.82 degrees and the average low was 29.9 making the February mean temperature 37.36 degrees as compared with the normal of 31.6 degrees.

Measurable amounts of rain or snow fell on 10 days last month and precipitation totaled 2.89 inches, a surplus of 0.23 inches above normal. Snowfall totaled 7.7 inches.

The two-month accumulation of rain and snow here so far this year comes to 5.31 inches, a shortage of 0.44 inches below normal.

Arendtsville Report

The February weather report from Arendtsville showed an average temperature there of 35 degrees which is 4.1 degrees above normal. The average daily high was 43.2 and the daily low readings averaged 26.8 degrees. The maximum for the month was 57 on the 27th and the low was 15 on the 12th.

Precipitation there totaled 3.04 inches which is 0.53 above normal, and included 8.7 inches of snow. The two-month rainfall there is 5.6 inches which is 0.09 inches above normal. Only 99 hours and 50 minutes of sunshine were counted at Arendtsville last month, or 33.1 per cent of the total available.

Nasser Upsets Suez Canal Pact

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Times said today in a dispatch from Cairo that Egyptian President Nasser considers himself no longer bound by the "six principles" for operation of the Suez Canal.

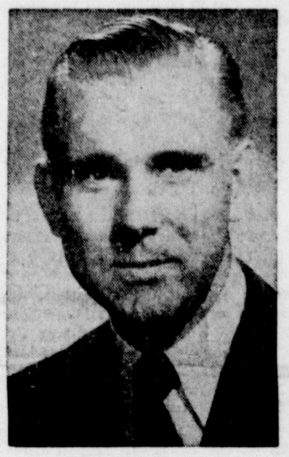

The dispatch, quoting informed sources, said Nasser told King Saud of Saudi Arabia that the British French invasion of Egypt "washed out" Egypt's agreement at the United Nations last October to the principles Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold formulated for settlement of the Suez dispute.

Hammarskjold worked out the six principles in secret talks with British, French and Egyptian leaders at the U. N. They were endorsed by the Security Council and have been considered the basis of any future Suez settlement.

King Saud left Cairo yesterday after an Arab summit conference with Nasser, President Shkri Kuwatly of Syria and King Hussein of Jordan.

STRABAN BUS IS HIT BY SKIDDING CAR ON ROUTE 15

Forty Straban Twp. children escaped injury when a Syracuse car skidded on the Harrisburg Rd. and slammed into the rear of a school bus owned by Herbert Oyler, N. Stratton St., at about 8 o'clock this morning.

Guy Kane, Baltimore St. driver of the bus, was reported as having suffered a stiff neck when the bus snapped forward under the impact.

State police who investigated were not available for their report but the owner said the vehicle had about completed its morning round to pick up students for the schools here, both elementary and high school, when the crash occurred two miles north of here on the Harrisburg Rd. near the Penn-supreme Dairy establishment.

Transfer Children

Kane had halted on the road to pick up several youngsters at a bus stop, when he saw one of the children, who was about to step into the bus suddenly draw back. At that moment the car, operated by Elmer L. Hitchings, Syracuse, N. Y., crashed into the rear of the bus. The child had seen the accident about to happen and had been quick enough to back way from danger, Oyler said. If the youngster had been in the doorway of the bus, the impact might have caused injury.

Hitchings told Oyler he was driving south, headed for Florida, when he saw the bus ahead and started to slow his vehicle. When he did, a trailer attached to the sedan started to jackknife and in attempting to get out of that predicament, Hitchings was unable to keep his car from skidding into the rear of the bus, badly battering the front of the Syracuse man's car and damaging the rear door and bumper of the bus. Damage was estimated by Oyler at about $200 to the bus and about $600 or more to the car.

Oyler and Daniel Miller went to the scene in another bus and brought the children in to school, a little late for classes. The spare bus will also be used to transport the children home from school this afternoon.

200,000 Cheering Moroccans Give Nixon Rousing Welcome

RABAT, Morocco (AP) — Vice President Nixon got a rousing welcome from 200,000 cheering Moroccans today at the outset of his good will visit to eight African nations.

Nixon, standing upright with his arms outstretched in a white open limousine, aroused cheer after cheer from crowds packed two and three deep during much of the 10-mile parade route from the airport.

"Nixon, Nixon," "Long Live America," the crowds shouted in Arabic, French and English.

Crown Prince Moulay Hassan, eldest son of the Sultan, led an airport reception committee that included Morocco's prime minister and foreign minister. Hassan rode with Nixon during the 70-minute parade.

Nixon immediately began an American-style handshaking campaign. He delighted the crowds by twice stopping the limousine to get out and shake hands with persons lining the route. On each occasion he walked into a crowd of some 500 persons, shaking hands vigorously with men and veiled women alike and sometimes pausing to pat children on the head.

His Secret Service bodyguard and Moroccan police stood by nervously as Nixon was engulfed by the crowds.

Nixon said he was "deeply moved" by this "unbelievably splendid reception."

He arranged to call promptly on Sultan Mohammed V at his palace before starting out on a two-day round of dinners, receptions and luncheons.

FIRE DESTROYS 150-ROOM HOTEL

ASBURY PARK, N. J. (AP) — A spectacular, fast-moving fire destroyed two unoccupied hotels early today and threatened for a time an entire city block of this Atlantic Coast resort.

The 150-room Columbia Hotel, one block from the boardwalk, was damaged beyond repair, police said.

A 20-room rooming house next to Commodore and a garage next to Columbia were also damaged.

Acting Fire Chief Michael De Sarno estimated the damage at more than half a million dollars.

The two hotels and rooming house were closed for the winter.

At least three firemen were slightly injured while battling the flames.

The blaze started in the five-story Columbia Hotel, one of the larger hotels in this resort, and spread quickly throughout the building.

Fire fighters poured tons of water on the adjoining four-story Commodore in a desperate effort to stop the blaze from spreading, but the flames reached the frame structure.

Flames then spread from the Commodore to the frame rooming house.

He also introduced a number of guests of the auxiliary, including Mrs. Ellen Buehler, Mrs. Fred Gormley and Mrs. Ralph Johnson, who were invited because of connections of their families with the fire department over the years. Special tribute was paid to the memory of James B. Aumen who "built up our fire department from a small company with one piece of equipment to the fire department we know today."

Following the dinner and speaki program a floor show including a singer, a ventriloquist-magician and an accordionist from Washington was presented. The program concluded with dancing to the music of Bud Codori's Quintet.

Give Report On Xmas Decorations

The board of directors of the Gettysburg Retail Merchants Association have made a final report on their Christmas Decorations program to which individuals and businesses donated a total of $1,003.50 last fall.

The report shows that $50 was spent for Christmas trees used in the street decorations while laurel cost $123.60. Mailing charges for soliciting donations cost $67 16 while Stanley Hull was paid $739.52 for erecting and dismantling the street decorations.

Ayre Urges

regard Gettysburg as a passing-through point and not as an objective point.

"Casual Visits"

"It is conceded that there will always be a high percentage of battlefield visits that represent casual visitation, such as excursions from nearby towns and cities. But it is clear that upgrading Gettysburg as a travel objective and prolonging the stay of visitors offers great possibilities, not alone for immediate revenue but as an anchor to the wind against future developments in highways or in declining public interest in historic shrines.

"Estimating that because of seasonal variations and other factors accommodations now available are 50% occupied, each additional one percentage of occupancy would mean the sale of 2,200 rooms to 3,500 people for $13,200. There would be proportionate increase in every line of business.

Prompts Return Visits

"The extra-dividend of this sort of program is that the people who say here for a longer period of time, who make guided trips over the battlefield, who visit museums and shops and who tour the fruit belt become enthusiasts who not only return but urge others to visit here and follow the same procedure.

"A longer stay makes for greater knowledge and appreciation of the community, and indeed of the entire area—its historical and cultural traditions, its agricultural, industrial and mercantile aspects, its desirability as a place in which to live."

NAVY SEEKING H.S. GRADUATES

Raymond H. Bisbing, petty officer in charge, of the Gettysburg Navy recruiting office, announced today a new enlistment program for high school graduates — the nuclear field program.

The Navy's High School Graduate Training Program which has been in effect for some time has been revised to incorporate changes which provide for the direct procurement from civilian sources of candidates for training in the nuclear field.

A young man accepted for this program, after completing recruit training, will be first sent to one of nine schools applicable to nuclear power (all basic electronics, engineering and electrical schools). Upon successful completion of this first school, he will be assigned to an additional period of training of approximately one year's duration in nucleonics and upon completion of this training will be assigned to duties involving nuclear power. Initially, the majority of young men enlisted in the program will be assigned to the submarine phase. Therefore, they will be required to volunteer for submarine duty and meet the submarine physical requirements. The number of men assigned to the surface ship phase will gradually increase as the nuclear program expands.

A high school graduate accepted into this nuclear field program will be required to serve 6 years from date of enlistment.

High school graduates interested can receive further details from the Navy recruiters in the Post Office building, Wednesday and Thursday of each week.

PA. CITIZENS' GROUP STUDIES STATE'S PA LAW

The problems of public assistance for aliens and short-term residents in Pennsylvania were aired this week by citizen members of the Pennsylvania Citizens Association.

Meeting as members of the association's board of directors, the public assistance program in the Commonwealth was brought under scrutiny through a survey made by a statewide Committee on Public Assistance, covering case histories in 42 counties during last year.

Present public assistance laws in the state exclude aliens from eligibility for general assistance. "This constitutes a grave injustice to these individuals and imposes undue hardships on these unfortunate people at a time when they need understanding instead of rejection," PCA's president Frank C. Foose, said.

Laws Are Antiquated

The formal recommendation of the board of directors of PCA is that the administration take appropriate action to include aliens in the eligibility lists for general public assistance.

The present exclusion of aliens dates back to 1939 when hasty laws were imposed because of the influences of World War II. "Since then, conditions have so radically changed as to make this phase of our state's public assistance laws antiquated," Foose commented.

PCA's board of directors has also recommended that the administration "liberalize" the public assistance requirements concerning the length of residence in the state. At present, general assistance applicants must show residence in the state of at least twelve consecutive months prior to the date of application.

Full Report Later

"With the mobility of our labor force and general citizenry today, the unnecessary hardships of this aspect of the public assistance law must be eliminated through some liberalization of the law," President Foose said.

The questions of residence and citizenship were included in a study made by the Public Assistance Committee of PCA in which the entire public assistance program was surveyed.

Additional study is being made of the survey by local committees throughout the state. Full results and findings of the survey will be released later when all of the facts have been brought to the attention of appropriate members, a PCA spokesman said.

COUGH STILL BOTHERS IKE

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower complained about his cough again today and suggested he would like to get away to a warm, dry climate for a while.

The President has been bothered by a cough for several weeks. It has been hanging on since January when he caught a cold while watching the inaugural parade which marked the start of his second term.

At the White House this morning, Eisenhower conferred with John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, and other members of a citizen advisory committee set up to study the U. S. foreign aid program.

Photographers in the President's office heard him tell Lewis that he hasn't been able to get rid of his cough and that it might be a good idea for him to get away for a while to a warm, dry climate. He mentioned Tucson, Ariz., as a possibility.

WESTMINSTER CHOIR SCORES POINT FOR U. S.

BEIRUT, Lebanon — The Westminster College Choir of Princeton, N. J., has scored a point for the United States in the contest between the Soviet bloc and the West for cultural penetration of the Mideast, according to a dispatch to the New York Times.

The choir left last Friday for Athens after two concerts that were enthusiastically received by Beirut audiences. Its numbers ranged from Bach and Handel to Negro spirituals and a Navajo war dance.

The choir is finishing a tour that has taken it to India, Pakistan, Iran and Iraq before coming here.

Up to the present, Iron Curtain countries have been sending more groups here than the West and are continuing their effort. The Czechoslovak Sluk Company of dancers and singers opened here last Saturday. On March 6, Igor Moisseyev's Soviet ballet troupe begins a series of six performances.

Beirut is more susceptible than most Mideast cities to foreign art, and visitors have had considerable successes. Eastern European groups in general have aroused more enthusiasm with folk dances and songs than the more sophisticated Western art.

In another field, the United States scored a success with a Washington's Birthday reception aboard two visiting destroyers of the Sixth Fleet, the Gatling and the Dortch. Any chance to visit American warships is received with enthusiasm here.

Sam Scott, on of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Scott, Seminary Ave., is a member of the choir.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Drawings In N. Y. Show: Three drawings by Gettysburg public school children have been selected by Miss Anna E. Mumper, supervisor of art in the schools here, for display in the seventh annual exhibit "Young America Paints," to be held at the Museum of Natural Science in New York City from April 2 to 17. This is the first year Gettysburg pupils' work has been entered in the show.

The drawings selected include a 12 by 18 crayon sketch by seven-year-old Gwen Bream, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Bream, East Broadway. She is a pupil in the second grade and Miss Grace Sachs is her teacher. The drawing is of a landscape.

An 18 and 24 crayon drawing, another landscape view, by Mary Joanne Tawney, aged nine years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Tawney, West Middle street, is one of the three to be shown. Mary Joanne is a fourth grade pupil.

The third picture is a water color drawing of high schqol students, measuring 12 by 18, by Joseph E. Codori Jr., a Gettysburg high school sophomore.

Plane Or Blimp Is Spotted Over Wset Coast Early Today: Los Angeles, Feb. 25 (AP) — Anti-aircraft guns fired round after round of ammunition and tracer bullets at an unidentified object which moved slowly down the coast from Santa Monica and disappeared south of the rich Signal Hill oil fields early today.

Army officials declined to comment but speculation quickly rose that an enemy blimp might have passed over the area. This was based on the fact that the object required nearly 30 minutes to travel some 20 or 25 miles — far slower than an airplane.

Today's Talk

THE EASY WAY

There are those who are forever trying to find the easy way to do a thing. They usually fail, for there are too many trying to find the same way! The big city newspapers give pages to ads for competent help, especially appealing for trained help, educated young men, with character. Good men are at a premium.

Many years ago on the way to my office, I stopped to view a great excavation for another skyscraper building, but what interested me was the name of the contractor, and this line underneath. "Builder of Difficult Foundations." Here was a man who wanted the tough jobs, the "difficult" ones. There is a cry for the highly skilled and the competent.

There is no royal road to a genuine success. Usually it is a rocky road taking all the will and courage that a person has. Easy jobs wear out and are among those that are periodic and undependable. Difficult jobs are the lasting ones. They are the ones to which a person should tie. There may be setbacks, disappointments, and many failures along the way, but they only harden one to keep growing better.

The long hard ways bring the greatest rewards and satisfaction. It means something to do a job better than it has ever been done before! A few years ago I came across a book by Frank Bettger which he called "How I raised myself from failure to success in selling." It is full of ideas and inspiring advice, which the author applied to himself, for he had courage and purpose to guide him.

Read the stories of the great successful and you will learn that all such plowed right through the difficult times without wavering. They brushed aside all the easy ways! They wanted their work to live. There is more fun in picking the hard way to do things. The hard way is more interesting and you learn more that adds to your stature.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Good Will"

CLAIMS UNION BOSS WANTED PINBALL HELP

WASHINGTON (AP)—Stanley W. Earl, Portland city commissioner, testified Thursday that Clyde Crosby, Teamsters Union boss in Oregon, opposed his 1956 election because Earl refused to support a pinball licensing ordinance.

"He told me if I didn't support pinball licensing the Teamsters Union would oppose me in the election," Earl said.

Earl said the proposed ordinance was never passed.

Earl described himself as a lifelong member of various other unions.

The commissioner testified before the special Senate committee investigating racketeering in labor-management relations.

Cites "Muscle In"

From James B. Elkins, a Portland gamoler, the senators had received two days of testimony that some officials of the Teamsters Union and others tried to "muscle in" on rackets in Portland.

Elkins said this outside group tried to oust the police chief and succeeded in defeating the city's mayor.

Mount Carries Superb Record Into NCAA, Mason-Dixon Cage Playoffs Beginning On Monday

When Coach Dave Polansky's CCNY Beavers tap-off against Mount St. Mary's College Monday at 8 p.m. in Memorial gymnasium, Emmitsburg, in a small college NCAA tourney game, they will be facing one of the nation's finest young coaches in Jimmy Phelan, one of the nation's top scorers in the Mounties' Jack Sullivan, and a club that has won three straight Mason-Dixon Conference crowns and is favored to win an unprecedented fourth title in tourney play March 5-7.

Jimmy Phelan, a former LaSalle star with Ken Loeffler's fine teams and a hot-shot dribbler with the Quantico Marines, has posted a phenomenal 66-15 record over the past two and a half years including the game with Fairleigh-Dickinson Wednesday night. His teams have twice won M-D tourney crows and twice were finalists in the Quantico Invitation tourney. In his first season Phelan had a 21-3 record which included wins over St. Francis of Brooklyn, and Maurice Stokes and St. Francis of Loretto. Last year the Mountaineers had a 20-8 season as shotmaker Jack Sullivan first broke an ankle and then sprained another. After losing their first three games of the season to Steubenville, St. Vincent's, and St. Francis of Pennsylvania. Phelan's team began to jell and they tripped 19 of 20 foes. The Mounties won 14 in a row during that period including victories over Georgetown. Both Steubenville and St. Francis were soundly thrashed in return games.

Sullivan Sets Records

Phelan's ace shotmaker, and his only senior, is Jack Sullivan, a 6'4 forward who holds all the Maryland, Mason-Dixon Conference and Mount St. Mary's records. The agile ace has poured 750 points through the hoop in 23 college games and has been riding a 32.9 per game average, third best among small college scorers. His season high was 51, a new State record, against Washington College. Only twice all season has he been under 25. Against Georgetown he hit for 44 and in three games in the Quantico tourney got 116, the tourney record.

In three years under Phelan the Mountaineers have dropped only four conference games out of 38. They have won nine tourney games in a row and last season smashed the tourney records by averaging 113 points per game. Sullivan got 100 of those.

Backing up Sullivan are soph Burt Sheing, clever 5'11 backcourtman with an 18 point average, frosh Jack Marshall, a speedy guard with an eight-point average; boardmen Bill Williams and Jerry Bohlinger, both 6'6, and Tommy Leonard, a 6'5 forward from Elizabeth, N. J., who is Phelan's top reserve. Chaminade products Jack Halleron and Jack Gunn, both freshmen, have also been seeing constant action in recent games. Other reserves are Joe Sullivan, brother of Jack and Phelan's defensive ace; Ed Galen, a good 6'3 shooter who has been hobbled with a bad ankle; 6'5 Bill Morse of Syracuse, a fine shooter and excellent frosh prospect, and Tom Mullen.

Scoring Marks

With one game to play against Villanova at the Palestra tonight the Mountaineers have scored 2,091 in 23 games for a 90.9 average. Opponents have been held to 1727 or 75.0 per game. Leading Mountaineer scorers are Jack Sullivan, 750 points, 32.6 average; Burt Sheing, 429 points, 14.3 average; Bill Williams, 217 points, 9.4 average; Jack Marshall, 171 points, 8.2 average; Jerry Bohlinger, 116 points, 5.0; Tom Leonard, 121 points, 5.2. Marshall recently worked into the starting lineup and has been hitting about 15 points a game. Leonard is the team's top reserve.

Delone-Owl Cage Game Postponed

Due to hazardous driving conditions Thursday evening, the Delone-Westminster High School basketball game, scheduled to be played at McSherrystown, was postponed.

No date has been arranged to make up the game at a late hour today but it was reported as likely the game would be re-scheduled for Monday or Tuesday.

TIGERS HEAD BACK INTO 1ST DIVISION IN '57

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—The experts already have conceded another American League pennant to the New York Yankees, but for sheer conversation, you can't find many teams in front of the Detroit Tigers.

Few, if any, second-division teams approached a new season with more confidence and optimism. And from all outward appearances—from the top money men in the organization to the lowest paid hireling — the spirit is genuine.

Their hopes buoyed by a kingsized shakeup, including new owners, new manager and some new personnel, the Tigers feel this is the year they'll move back into the first division, a place they haven't reached since 1950.

New Spirit Can Be Felt

The new spirit can be felt and seen everywhere as the club officially opens spring training today at Henley Field.

No fewer than eight players who will be performing for new manager Jack Tighe had their best major league season in 1956. Can they repeat? Tighe believes most can, and says there will be more over-all strength, more capable players available to take up the slack should others fade.

John Fetzer, new chairman of the board of directors who is having his first fling at baseball ownership, flew into Lakeland yesterday and was happy to separate "fact from fancy" for a newman.

Changed Atmosphere

"We got rid of that country club atmosphere right away," Fetzer stated. "Last year when we had our first look at the club Fred Knorr, new president, remarked that the Tigers were the happiest bunch of fifth-place players he'd ever seen.

"We've made changes since then, and we've showed we're not afraid of changes. We wanted a revitalized organization from top to bottom, and we've got just that. The right spirit and a winning attitude are inseparable companions of victory."

Fetzer was a key man in the 11-man syndicate that paid 5½ million dollars for the Tigers last summer.

GHS Faces Hawks In Final Home Game Tonight

Six members of the Gettysburg High School varsity basketball squad make their final home appearance tonight when the Warriors oppose Hanover in a South Penn League game to conclude the home season. Next Tuesday Gettysburg finishes its campaign at Carlisle.

Seniors on the Gettysburg squad include Tom Kitzmiller, Bobby Hess, Jon Wagnild, John King, Jack Crist and Dick Pyle.

The game is of top importance to Hanover, first half champion, who is deadlocked with Carlisle for second place, half game back of Chambersburg. A big crowd of Hawk fans plan to accompany the squad here.

The reserve teams will meet at 6:45.

Other league games tonight include Hershey at Shippensburg, Middletown at Waynesboro, and Carlisle at Mechanicsburg.

NORTH CAROLINA HAS ONE MORE RIVER TO CROSS

By PETE PEDERSEN
The Associated Press

There's still another river to cross tonight for North Carolina—the nation's top-ranked college basketball team.

The Tar Heels take their glittering 23-0 record into the camp of bitter state rival Duke in their final test before the March 7-9 Atlantic Coast Conference tournament.

The game will be the first of two ACC battles that will attract the national spotlight over the weekend. Saturday night South Carolina entertains Clemson in a game that will be chiefly notable for the pressure it puts upon the Gamecocks' Grady Wallace, the nation's leading scorer.

Ashmore Stole Show

Wallace must protect his 30.48 point per game average against the 30.05 mark registered by Gibbon of Mississippi, who ended his collegiate career last night by scoring 25 points as Mississippi lost to Mississippi State 81-73 in the Southeastern Conference.

All eyes were upon Gibbon last night but the winners' Jim Ashmore stole the scoring show with a 37-point outburst. The splurge pushed Ashmore's regular-season otal to 708 points, three more than the Southeastern record Bob Pettit set for Louisiana State in 1954.

Other conference action centered in the Missouri Valley last night where the St. Louis Billikens, ranked 14th in the weekly Associated Press poll, rallied to beat Tulsa 60-58. The Oklahoma Aggies limited Drake scoring ace Phil Murrell to 17 points to fashion a 63-47 triumph over the Bulldogs.

Other Results

In the Southern Conference, Washington and Lee clinched second place by downing Davidson 62-53.

Other activity was on the light side but Canisuius proved its NCAA tournament worth by spilling Holy Cross 85-76. Duquesne kept its tourney bid hopes alive by whipping Brandeis 86-73, and Manhattan, already signed for the National Invitation Tournament, was surprised by St. John's of Brooklyn 61-59 in three overtimes at Madison Square Garden.

NO CONTEST

FOND DU LAC, Wis. (AP) — The Presbyterian team in the YMCA Junior Church Basketball League began working on offense and defense shortly after losing, to St. Paul's, 20-3.

The losers got off to a rather slow start, trailing 72-0 going into the final quarter.

30 PLAYERS IN HOLDOUT ROLE IN BIG LEAGUES

By MIKE RATHET
The Associated Press

Nearly 30 players assumed the traditional "holdout" role today as the major league clubs officially opened the spring training season.

Milwaukee Braves, beginning a campaign for their first pennant since moving the franchise to the Midwest, were minus three important regulars — 19-game winner Lew Burdette, relief pitcher Ernie Johnson and center fielder Billy Bruton. All were in camp at Bradentown.

On the other hand, Brooklyn's National League pennant winners needed to sign only Sandy Amoros to complete their roster. The other six senior circuit members had all players present and accounted for.

Amoros Arrives

Amoros arrived at Vero Beach yesterday. But Vice President Buy Bavasi, who handles contracts, was out of town.

The American League picture was quite different. The world champion New York Yankees signed Don Larsen to close their ledgers yesterday. But the other seven clubs still had more than 20 blank contracts.

Heading the list in number was Cleveland with five, but shortstop Chico Carrasquel was the only missing regular. Rudy Regalado, who has received numerous trials, and pitchers Dick Tomanek, John Gray and Ed Gasque were still unsigned.

Detroit Problem

Sammy White, a catcher, infielder Billy Klaus and outfielders Jim Piersall and Gene Stephens have not come to terms with the Boston Red Sox.

Southpaw Billy Hoeft was considered Detroit's biggest problem. But Eddie Robinson and outfielder Gil Coan were still unsigned. Kansas City's headaches were pitcher Maury McDermott, recently acquired in a multiplayer deal with the Yankees, pitcher Tom Morgan, infielder Hec Lopez and catcher Hal Smith.

Baltimore's Willie Miranda, who hasn't been heard from since he returned his first contract unsigned in January, is the Orioles' only holdout.

$6,000 Boost For Larsen

Washington listed outfielder Roy Sievers, Clint Courtney and pitcher Elevio Hernandez among the unsigned. Chicago's worries were pitcher Ellis Kinder, who is reported to have agreed to terms but has not officially inked his contract, pitcher Jim McDonald and infielder Tommy Brown.

Larsen, the unpredictable righty who pitched the only perfect game in World Series history against the Brooklyn Dodgers last year, signed for an estimated $6,000 increase over his 1956 salary of about $12,000.

Washington enlisted pitcher Chuck Stobbs, who had a 15-15 record last season, third baseman Eddie Yost and rookie outfielder Neil Chrisley. Boston inked Ted Lepcio, Detroit got the nod from rookie outfielder Roy Hawes and Pittsburgh signed outfielder Lee Walls.

Milwaukee came to terms with outfielder Wes Covington and first baseman Frank Torre and Baltimore signed Bob Nieman.

MAYFIELD AND PALMER IN LEAD AT BATON ROUGE

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Husky Shelley Mayfield and slender Arnold Palmer, each trying to start a winning streak, led the field today into the second round of the $15,000 Baton Rouge Open Golf Tournament.

Both fired 4-under-par 68s yesterday for a 1-stroke edge over the field.

Mayfield, 33, playing out of Westbury, N.Y., is out to win his second Baton Rouge Open.

Palmer, 27-year-old former national amateur champion playing out of Latrobe, Pa., won the $30,000 Houston Open Monday.

One stroke back were Bill Nary, Wayne, Mich., and Manuel de la Torre, Milwaukee.

Bunched at 70 were Stan Leonard, Vancouver, B.C.; Lloyd Mangrum, Apple Valley, Calif.; Gardner Dickinson, Panama City, Fla.; Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex.; and Jimmy Demaret, Kiamesha Lake, N.Y.

Most players said the 6,450-yard, par-72 Baton Rouge Country Club course was playing longer than it had in past tournaments, meaning scores should be higher. But 28 of the 160-player field shot par or better yesterday despite a gusty wind

Jay Hebert, former Louisiana State University golfer and pretourney favorite, finished 3 over par with a 75. His brother Lionel had better luck, finishing with a 71

Doug Ford, Mahopac, N.Y., leading money winner for 1957, shot a 72.

SYRACUSE TOPS PISTONS 123-112

The Syracuse Nationals of the National Basketball Assn. would just as soon play Western division clubs all the time.

The Nats, currently the hottest team in the league, toppled Fort Wayne's Western division leaders last night, 123-112. That made it five victories out of six tries against western clubs in six days. And the victory was the Nats' seventh in their last eight games.

Before Syracuse tightened its grip on third place—the last playoff position in the Eastern division—fourth-place New York shaded the high-flying Boston Celtics 122-121 in overtime. In Philadelphia, the second-place Warriors rolled to a 129-112 victory over Minneapolis, cutting Boston's first-place margin to 6½ games.

Syracuse used 32-point shooting by Johnny Kerr and a 28-point performance by Dolph Schayes in beating the Pistons.

The Knicks blew a 15-point lead in the fourth period and had to go to overtime to top the Celtics.

Philadelphia scored 106 points in the first three quarters, bettering its own mark of 104 points made in the first three quarters against Boston last March 8. High point honors went to the Warriors' Paul Arizin, who is within 51 points of catching leader Bob Pettit of St. Louis. Arizin tallied 32 points.

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Branch Rickey, the 75-year-old retired general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, in in the limelight—as a hitting instructor.

Rickey took over as a special instructor after George Sisler of the Pirate staff was stricken ill. Manager Bobby Bragan made it clear as training camp opened yesterday that his men can benefit from Rickey's instructions.

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies officially opened spring training today but the task was of a possible deal for a shortstop with the Brooklyn Dodgers instead of training.

Roy Hamey, general manager of the Phillies, and Buzzy Bavasi, Brooklyn vice president, are talking about a trade reportedly involving Bill Lillis, a young shortstop who hit 18 homeruns and batted .266 for St. Paul in the American Association last year.

NEW YORK (AP) — Although he has an unbeaten streak of 13 and is the third-ranking lightweight contender, boxing stylist Johnny Gonsalves of Oakland, Calif., is a 7-5 underdog to unranked Paolo Rosi for their television fight tonight.

The two lean 135-pounders will clash in a 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden (NBC-TV, Radio, 10 p.m. EST).

Canners Now To Meet Warwick At York Wednesday

Class B, District 3 PIAA basketball playoffs will revert to the original setup, it was revealed today by James B. Neely, Lancaster, Class B chairman.

This means that Biglerville, Adams County League titlist, will meet Warwick Union of Lancaster, on the Central High floor at York, next Wednesday evening as planned in the original program.

The decision to revert to the original schedule came when Newport defeated Juniata Joint Tuesday to qualify for the playoffs.

Under the new setup Camp Hill draws a bye and meets the Biglerville-Warwick winner on Saturday, March 9. If Biglerville is the winner the game will be played on the Carlisle High floor and if Warwick triumphs the game will be played at Lebanon.

LITTLE CAGERS GIVEN BOOST BY CHET FORTE

By FRANK ECK
(AP) Sports Editor

If basketball is a big man's game somebody forgot to tell little Chet Forte.

As today's college basketball players go, the Hackensack, N. J., pre-medical senior is a midget at 5-feet-9. However, he has smashed every three-year scoring, season and game records on the books at Columbia University.

Forte is pronounced the same as the number 40 he wears on his uniform.

When he scored 36 points in a losing Ivy League game against Yale he replaced the 7-foot Wilt the Stilt Chamberlain as the nation's leading scorer among major college players.

Feats Phenomenal

When you consider that the 21-year-old Forte weighs only 145 pounds dripping wet, his scoring feats really are phenomenal. In three games one week he tallied 108 points, an average of 36 per game.

He is the fifth in Columbia history to top 1,000 points, and Walter Budko made his 1,163 points in four seasons. The others are Jack Molinas, 1,046 points; John Azary, 1,015, and Norman Skinner, 1,015.

He set a record at Rutgers with 44 points, at Princeton with 34 and sank 38 foul shots in a row for a national record. For his first 15 games this season he averaged 30.1 points per game.

"Forte is the most exciting says Lou Rossini who is in his seventh season as Lion coach.

Running Jump Shot

Chet has developed agility and speed to offset his height disadvantage. One of his best shots is a running jump shot. He often gets it off by falling away from a taller defender. He also is terrific with a set shot. And he's a good guard.

As a sophomore, Forte tallied 559 points in 25 games to top the Ivy League scoring two seasons ago. Last season he got 358 tallies in 16 games, missing nine games because he was ineligible the last half.

He would be something to watch in the pro ranks where players average about 6-feet-4. But Chet probably will end his basketball after this season for he hopes to become a doctor like his father.

DELAY VERDICT IN MORALS CASE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The verdict in the retrial of Steve Allison, suspended disc jockey, on morals charges won't be known for more than three weeks.

The trial ended yesterday but Judge Charles G. Webb, hearing the case without a jury, announced he would reserve his decision. Judge Webb of Tioga County, substituting here, said he leaves today for three weeks vacation in Mexico. He said the court records will be transcribed in his absence for his study when he returns.

Allison 41, is accused of three offenses with 18-year-old Dorothy Helland in a second floor record room of a Philadelphia radio station. Mrs. Helland was unable to testify because of illness. Her testimony from Allison's first trial, which resulted in a hung jury, was read into the record of the retrial.

Yesterday Mrs. Donata Tursi, 45-year-old widow, broke into sobs on the witness stand. She was excused after refusing to say whether she had been in the record room with Allison. Mrs. Tursi claimed the privilege of refusal on the ground of self-incrimination or degredation.

IKE MADE BIG HEADLINES ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower made banner headlines a year ago today. He did so by saying "my answer will be affirmative" — meaning, yes, he had decided to seek a second term.

Actually it was on Feb. 29, 1956. It was leap year and February had an extra day. So this is the anniversary.

The tension that day at the President's jammed news conference was terrific. Eisenhower had not announced in advance he would disclose his long-awaited decision, but there had been pretty good indications he was ready.

For months the speculation had been mounting — ever since he suffered a heart attack Sept. 24, 1955.

At first it had been hard to find anyone who wasn't convinced the attack had ruled out another term for Eisenhower. Republican leaders, having given virtually no thought to the idea of an alternate candidate, were in near despair at word of the President's illness.

But in the succeeding weeks one favorable medical report after another changed the picture. Eisenhower himself kept his own counsel. His backers took hope.

Then on Feb. 14 last year Eisenhower's doctors said after another physical examination that they had found him fit to serve another 5 to 10 years in a job like the presidency.

That was the situation when Eisenhower faced 311 tense reporters a year ago. He had promised that if he could manage it his decision would be announced first at a news conference.

Probably none of the 311 ever was more tantalized than during the opening minutes of that conference. The President started the conference with a plug for the Red Cross. Then he went on to talk about the visit of the President of Italy to the United States.

The newsmen fidgeted while Eisenhower spoke of pending farm legislation and of a bill dealing with a river development project.

Then suddenly there was an excited stir. Eisenhower had said, "My next announcement involves something more personal."

But even then he kept everyone on tenterhooks for three or four more minutes, covering background considerations which had led to the decision he was about to announce.

Then, finally, there it was — "My answer will be positive, that is, affirmative."

BARBER MAY HAVE HAIRCUT CLUE TO MURDER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Police believe the killer of an unidentified boy may have cut the youngster's hair to prevent identification.

The naked, bruised body of the four or five-year-old boy was discovered in a large cardboard box in a vacant lot here Tuesday.

Despite police teletype messages throughout the country the victim's identification has not been established. Police say there is no doubt he was slain.

Meanwhile, Max Schellinger, a barber in the area, told police Capt. David H. Roberts that he was "almost positive" he had cut the boy's hair a week ago. Schellinger said the boy whose hair he cut told him he had five brothers and sister and lived along the Schuylkill River.

Seek Further Clues

Schellinger told police he thought the boy had been accompanied to his shop by an older brother.

Roberts said detectives have been detailed to take the barber around the section in the hope of finding witnesses to support the partial identification.

Police say it appeared obvious that someone had slashed away the youngster's hair to try to make identification difficult. Police said if the boy who visited Schellinger's shop was the victim, the mangled haircut was performed afterward.

Barber Cuts Hair For Poor At 35 Cents

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Barber Aaron Musselman works 12 hours a day with only 15 minutes out for a meal. He has a constant stream of customers and no time for rest.

The reason: Musselman, 77, charges only 35 cents for a haircut.

"The people I cut hair for are not rich," he explains.

HONOLULU (AP) — Gardner A. Dailey, architect of two Waikiki Beach hotels—the Surfrider and Princess Kaiulani — arrived from the mainland and couldn't find a room. He moved in with friends.

DISCLOSURES ON BRIBE ATTEMPT ARE PROMISED

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators promised disclosures today relating to "bribes or attempted bribes" in the Senate investigation of alleged racketeering in labor and industry.

A Portland, Ore., gambler James B. Elkins, testified yesterday that Stanley Terry, another pinball machine operator, had told him he paid $10,000 to Frank W. Brewster, president of the Western Conference of the Teamsters Union, for an okay to resume pinball operations.

Earlier witnesses have said a combination of teamsters bosses, public officials and gamblers was trying to take over and expand gambling and vice operations in Portland in 1955.

"Silent Partner"

Elkins testified he was a "silent partner" in the Acme Amusement Co., and that he and dis partners got an agreement from the union which would prevent other operators from placing machines in taverns and other places.

It was testified Clyde Crosby, teamsters Oregon boss, put union pickets around taverns and bars to compel them to throw out the pinball machines they had and install only machines bearing Teamsters Union insignia. Deliveries of beer and other supplies were blocked unless they complied.

The subcommittee counsel has charged the Acme group wanted to put all other pinball machine operators out of business and leave the field open to Elkins and his associates.

Give Details On Plan

Kennedy said the alleged $10,000 payment by Terry to Brewster got Terry's machines back in use again and "burst the bubble of Acme." It has been testified the "take" in Portland alone was expected to exceed $250,000 a year and run many times that figure for all Oregon.

Brewster is under subpoena to appear next week.

Elkins has told in great detail about the alleged plan to take over Portland gambling and vice operations. He says he was "double crossed" and now wants to expose the others he says were involved.

State indictments dave been returned at Portland against Elkins and others said to have been involved in the situation, including William Langley, the district attorney.

Sleeps Thru Blast That Arouses Town

DALLAS (AP)—Hundreds of residents in nearby Irving were jolted out of bed early yesterday by the noise of a gas explosion that damaged a duplex apartment and several houses.

Mrs. Wanda Garner, 15, however, slept through the blast. She was asleep in the duplex and had to be awakened by a friend who discovered she was missing when the house was evacuated.

Sunday School Lesson

By H. R. and M. C. Gold

THE GREAT CONFESSION
Matthew 16:13-27

Key Verse: "Who do you say that I am?" . . . "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Matthew 16:15-16.

One of the most moving, as well as most important events of Jesus' ministry occurred in Caesarea Philippi, a mountain resort to which the Lord and His disciples had retired for a period of meditation and careful instruction. For over two years the Twelve had lived with the Master and learned of Him. They had seen Him perform miracles of healing, raise the dead, teach the multitudes. Throu association with Him they had learned to love Him and one another.

Jesus had watched the slow but steady spiritual growth of His disciples, and had chosen this time to test their thoughts about Himself. It was not easy for these untutored Galileans to express themselves despite their convictions. Suddenly their Lord asks them several inescapable questions! Not as a political candidate who seeks to know what people are thinking of him, but as a Man who has a divine mission, part of which must be carried out by these very associates.

General Lay Opinion

So Jesus asked first, "Who do men say that the Son of man is?" They answered by saying, "Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." This represented the general lay opinion of those who had heard and seen Jesus. All three prophets mentioned had a divine mission and were expected to return; all were rugged, vigorous men of God who had left their mark on a waiting Hebrew nation.

Next came the important question, "But who do you say that I am?" At last the question which must precipitate future action and policy trembles in the air and the disciples are called to witness! As usual Simon Peter was the first to answer. His reply was immediate: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." One can almost picture the intense joy on Jesus' face when He answered Peter, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jona! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven."

"Peter's Confession"

This great declaration known as Peter's Confession was significant because it marked the foundation upon which the disciples' faith was based. It was the first time they had acknowledged Him to be the Christ, the Anointed One. But Peter could not have expressed it without having it revealed by the Father. Jesus went on to say ". . . You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church,. . . I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven . . ." From then on Peter was named Cephas (the Rock.) The so called "keys of the kingdom of heaven" meant the power given to the whole Apostolic Church through Peter to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

What led Peter to make the great confession? Loyalty and love for Jesus. In addition, he showed an intense personal commitment to Jesus. All these expressions of dedication were the result of growth in Christian character. The confession itself opened the way for Jesus to explain what was in store for Him and for them. First He charged them "to tell no one that he was the Christ." Only His close associates could be prepared for the future and He steadfastly refused to use supernatural signs to satisfy the doubters. After testing the disciples' devotion, He felt compelled to give them some organized instruction which would serve them well in the months ahead.

When Jesus told them that "he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things" the disciples could not quite understand, particularly when He spoke of being raised up on the third day. Peter rebuked Him at the turn of conversation and Jesus turned to him, saying, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance to me; for you are not on the side of God, but of men."

Then Jesus concluded His talk with an explanation of the meaning of the Christian way and what it demands — sacrifice: "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." The cross up to the time of the Resurrection had stood for failure and degradation. Now it stands for victory over sin and death. When one confesses Christ and Him resurrected, there are two basic requirements: personal dedication to Him and fellowship with as well as service to one another.

"UNNECESSARY ERROR" SAYS SEN. KENNEDY

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass) cautioned today that defeat of the Middle East resolution would "embarrass" President Eisenhower in a time of crisis and "dismay" friendly nations in the area.

He said he would support the resolution despite his belief it is "an unnecessary error" supported only by "urgent pleas for speed and unanimity, exaggerated justifications and evasive testimony, without any demonstration of critical need."

Kennedy spoke out in an address prepared for Senate delivery at an unusual 10 a.m. session as Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas exerted new pressure in an effort to speed a vote.

Joins Other Democrats

Kennedy joined with four other Democrats in opposition to a proposal to strip the resolution of presidential authority to spend up to 200 million dollars in available foreign aid funds on a crash basis in the Middle East.

The others, all equally critical of the administration, were Senators Church (Idaho), Carroll (Colo), Sparkman (Ala) and Symington (Mo).

The amendment, offered as a substitute for the resolution, would limit the resolution to a pledge of readiness to use troops to assist nations requesting help in resisting Red armed aggression in the Middle East.

Urgent Leters

Secretary of State Dulles sent two urgent letters to the Senate late yesterday opposing the substitute, which is now sponsored by Democratic Senaors Russell (Ga), Byrd (Va), Sennis (Miss) and Anderson (NM).

Dulles gave assurances the economic assistance authority would not be used as a springboard for launching a Middle Est spedig program that ultimately will cost "billions of dollars," as Russell and his associates contend.

And he declared none of the money would be used to help Egypt finance construction of its proposed Aswam dam. The United States joined Britain in 1955 in offering to help Egypt build the long-proposed high dam on the Nile River, but the offer was withdrawn last July after Egypt bought quantities of arms from Russia.

Kennedy said that to keep the military authority and drop the economic provisions of the resolution would lead to "disastrous effects" on American leadership in the area.

WEATHER'S BAD IN NORTHEAST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snow, sleet and freezing temperatures prevailed throughout the Northeast today making March come in like the proverbial lion.

Slippery highways caused a fatal accident in Pennsylvania.

Freezing rain, sleet and snow was forecast for all of upstate New York today. The New York Thruway was open all the way, but some slippery spots were reported.

In Connecticut it snowed all night, with a one- to two-inch accumulation covering most of the state. All highways were slippery, freezing temperatures coated auto windshields with ice during sleet periods.

Sleet fell on northern New Jersey, turning to snow in some areas. There were several minor collisions on the New Jersey Turnpike. The speed limit was reduced to 35 miles per hour. State Police warned motorists to reduce speeds on the Garden State Parkway.

In New England, the Weather Bureau forecast a two- to four-inch snowfall in the Boston area.

A cheetah, the hunting leopard, can run at a pace of 70 m.p.h. but only for about 500 yards. In India they tame the cheetah for use much like an American bird dog.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson doesn't talk too much. He talks little. But what he says sometimes makes people more upset than if they had just been buzzed by a comet.

No one in President Eisenhower's Cabinet, except perhaps Secretary of State Dulles who talks much more frequently, can match Wilson in making people angry.

But Wilson's frankness is like a fresh breeze in this town where high government officials pick their way through the English language like a night watchman making his rounds in an egg factory.

This week a few words by Wilson, apparently not well chosen, had the Army running after him with an eraser. This week he told a news conference the Army's Jupiter missile program "is canceled."

"No Final Decision"

Yesterday the Army issued a statement saying no final decision had been made on Jupiter and Wilson later confirmed that the decision "will be made at a later date."

The day before, top Air Force officials tried to explain to senators a cutback in projected Air Force expansion. They said that at one time they thought the Russians were outproducing the United States in heavy jet bombers but now the estimates have been changed.

Wilson, asked about this at his news conference, said re-evaluation of intelligence is customarily made this time of year. This happens to be the time of year when Wilson's department tells Congress what it needs and why.

His statement made some eyebrows go up. Did he mean the Defense Department puts its intelligence reports in a suitcase until this time of year and then starts to think about them? He probably meant no such thing.

"Minor League Stuff"

This was all minor league stuff compared with the fire he started earlier this year when he said the National Guard was a refuge for draft dodgers during the Korean War.

But the statement which got him into the hottest water was made Oct. 11, 1954, in the final month of a congressional election campaign with reporters in Detroit. he said:

"I've got a lot of sympathy for people where a sudden change catches them. But — I've always liked bird-dogs better than kennel-fed dogs myself. You know, one that will get out and hunt for his food rather than sit on his fanny and yell."

YANKS MOVE TO HELP JAP SHIP

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — The U. S. Navy's most powerful icebreaker headed back to the antarctic Thursday to help a Japanese ship caught in the ice. But a Soviet vessel likely will get there first, and may already have arrived.

America's Glacier started a 4,500-mile race to reach the Japanese polar ship Soya Maru, held in the ice off Prince Harald Coast. Just 40 miles out of Melbourne, the Glacier picked up two Australians — Michael Hassal, 26, and Michael Savage, 28 — who had drifted for 15 hours in heavy seas in their crippled motor boat.

The American ship sent the two men ashore by a launch, then resumed her journey to Antarctica. She was not expected to reach the Soya Maru before March 13.

The Soviet icebreaker Ob, already in antarctic waters, also went to the aid of the Soya Maru. The Japanese said she was expected today at Luetzow-Holm Bay, where the Soya Maru was icebound.

EXTENSION OF PARDONS BOARD PROBE FAVORED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Sen. William Z. Scott (R-Carbon) looked today for an extension of a legislative probe of the State Pardons Board to determine if the agency is antiquated.

"I have felt all along that we should look deeper into the constitutional provisions for this board with an eye toward its possibly being antiquated in its makeup," Scott told a newsman.

The Carbon County lawmaker made the suggestion on the heels of demands by two Delaware County judges that the board be abolished and replaced with a "less political" agency.

"I don't say I have come to any decision on whether or not the board should be abolished, but I'm just saying we should look deep into its constitutional organization for possible needed corrections," Scott added.

Judges Arthur P. Bretherick and William R. Toal urged in testimony yesterday that the board be "ripped out by constitutional amendment" and replaced by a board which could operate "above politics."

Both judges were quick to emphasize that their complaints about board operation date back 25 years and are not concerned with either major political party.

Judge Bretherick said he thought the board "stinks" and Judge Toal suggested changes that would allow board members "10 long years membership" without any other duties.

The board was established under the constitution and consists of the attorney general and commonwealth secretaries, both appointive offices, and the internal affairs secretary and lieutenant governor, both elective offices.

Resume Hearings Monday

It hears commutation and pardons pleas of persons convicted of all murder.

The committee adjourned yesterday and will resume hearings Monday.

Chairman Edwin W. Tompkins (R-Cameron) said testimony Monday will again center on Delaware County cases heard by the board.

"We hope to get around to Erie County cases by Monday," he added.

The two jurists complained of the agency's handling of two Delaware County cases involving six men given commutations by Gov. Leader on the board's recommendation.

Judge Bretherick told the committee he intended "in some cases ignoring" requests by the board for recommendations on Delaware County cases it might hear.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission has made a $205,100 grant to Pennsylvania State University, Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa) was informed Thursday.

Van Zant, in whose district Penn State is located, said the money will be spent for auxiliaries for the university's atomic research reactor. The chief items to be provided by the money, he said, will be a second set of fuel elements for the reactor, and construction of a hot (radiation) laboratory.

Penn State's reactor was paid for by the university. This is the first federal assistance to be provided regarding the atomic program there.

Van Zandt, a member of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, said he and Dr. Eric A. Walker, university president, have been working to obtain the grant for six months.
